

Basic information:

Miroslav Marković - Deputy Mayor of the City of Varaždin

He was born on February 6, 1971 in Varaždin. He is married and the father of two daughters.

He speaks English (B2), German (A2) and Slovenian (B2) language.

He finished primary and secondary electrical engineering and construction - natural sciences, mining school in Varaždin.

He graduated from the Faculty of Organization and Informatics in Varaždin in 1996. and acquired the title - designer of information systems.

At the Faculty of Teacher Education in Osijek in 2013, he passed PPDIM (Pedagogical Competences) - and acquired competencies for a computer science teacher.

Prior of his appointment as Deputy Mayor of Varaždin, he worked as a computer science teacher.

He has more than 20 years of work experience in programming, education, IT managers, insurance representation in the IT and insurance sectors.

He is an active member of the Presidency of the Croatian - German Society of Varaždin, the Croatian - Slovenian Society of Friendship Varaždin and the Croatian - Chinese Society of Friendship Zagreb.

He is the president of the City Organization of the SDP Varaždin and a member of the Head Committee of the SDP Croatia.